

Access to California's public colleges and universities is limited.

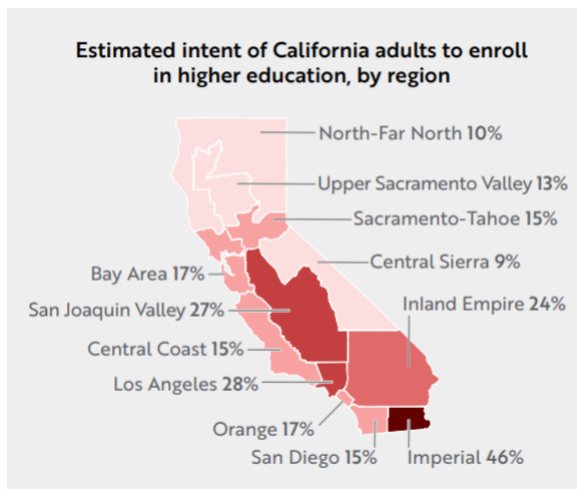

Source: US Census Bureau, American Community Survey five-year estimates (2014-2018).

1

Demand for higher education is high.

19% of California adults older than 25 plan to pursue higher education in the next two years.

Intent to enroll varies across the state.

californiacompetes.org

2